LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

With its haunting ruins and timeless character, the Aegean coastal city of Bodrum, Turkey is a fascinating destination for lovers of ancient history, natural beauty and local culture. Situated where the early city of Halicarnassus of Caria once stood, Bodrum today is a beautiful hillside town featuring quaint, whitewashed stucco houses draped in bougainvillea and blue trim that gaze out over the glittering bays of Torba and Türkbükü.

ANCIENT CITY OF HALICARNASSUS OF CARIA

Bodrum is located where the ancient city of Halicarnassus of Caria once stood. The city was once home to the Mausoleum of Halicarnassus, one of the 7 ancient wonders of the world. The ruins of this ancient site used to house the remains of Mausolus, ruler of Caria.

KOS ISLAND

With only a 30-minute ferry ride, you can discover the beautiful Kos Island in Greece on a day trip. Explore numerous golden sandy beaches with crystal clear water around the island and visit historical sites that will transport you back to the ancient era.

BODRUM OLD TOWN

Located between the beach and the Bodrum Castle, the old town of Bodrum is full of local spirits and vibes. Meander through the buzzing lanes and discover many local shops and restaurants to feel the real spirit of Bodrum and take souvenirs home with you to remind you of your perfect holiday. Belek, and unwind with the turquoise waters and scenic resort landscape.
